It is not possible to offer personal care but if this is required members can bring along their own support worker/carer who are more than welcome. There is currently no membership fee, just a subscription of £1.50 a week. It is primarily a social club without barriers. This group meets in St Augustine's Hall from 7pm – 9pm every Thursday. Today: Jesus leaves neither Pilate nor us in any doubt that he is a King: that is why he came, but his kingdom is not the sort of kingdom that could be understood by someone with a worldly mid-set. We have to come to terms with a different language. Riches, wealth, success, etc, etc. are not as the world defines them. I have to develop the eyes, the mind, the heart of the Christian, so that I can see things differently. Jesus tells us that our names are registered as citizens of heaven. In other words, we have a passport, a visa, and a green card for heaven. We are already citizens of the Kingdom so we should live and rejoice in the victory now....: so, maybe, we should let the party begin....!

A little story. The king was a king, and a proper king indeed. The fool was a fool and an equally proper fool. One day the king handed the fool a stick, with the words "take this stick and mind it with great care. If, however, you meet someone who is a greater fool than yourself, give the stick to that person."

The years passed. The king grew old, and was on his deathbed. He summoned his family, his courtesans, his army chiefs, and his faithful fool. He told them he was about to embark on a long journey, from which he would not return. He would be setting out on that journey shortly, and he wanted to take leave of them. There was great consternation and weeping. In the midst of it all, the fool approached the king, and asked "Majesty, on all previous journeys on which you set out, either in this country, or to another country, you always made detailed preparations for the journey. You sent soldiers and couriers ahead to prepare the way for your coming, and to ensure that everything was in readiness. Pray, then, tell me, what preparations have you made for this, the longest and most important journey of your whole life?" "Alas", said the king, "I have made no preparations for this journey. I kept putting off doing something, and now it is too late. I just don't have time". "In that case, Majesty, take this stick, because, at last I have found a fool much greater than myself!" (MB)

There will be a Craft Stall and Cake Stall and the Repository will be open selling a variety of Christmas Cards and other Christmas items. We will be having a Tombola so any unwanted items that we could use as prizes would be greatly appreciated: wine, chocolates, gloves, gift sets etc. Any donations of cakes, home baked or otherwise would be gratefully received. The Art and Craft Group and Valerie's Ladies would like to thank everyone who came and supported the Flower Demonstration. The afternoon was very enjoyable with beautiful flower arrangements being created and accompanied with lots of stories by Maria Kirk. This was followed by a lovely spread for afternoon tea and lots of bargains on the Craft Stall. £500.00 was raised for the Cathedral Restoration Fund. A visiting gentleman commented on how he was impressed by the professionalism and how everyone worked together. He compared us to a dry stone wall and said that although we were all different shapes, sizes and talents, we all supported and leaned on each other and kept the wall standing. Great compliment!!

Art and Craft Group Please note there is no meeting this Monday 26th November. The next meeting will take place on the 3rd December and will be a planning meeting. New members welcome.

Prayer for the Sick

Father, your Son accepted our sufferings
to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness.
Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brethren.
May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ
in his suffering for the salvation of the world.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
