Today: The gospel for today is about teaching. Supposing I was to read it slowly once more, or give it to you to reflect on for a while, what do you think would be its most important teaching for you? There is a great emphasis on obedience, on doing, what Jesus tells me. This is the proof that I love him, and that his message is getting a response from me. Coming to Mass here today is one of the ways in which to respond. The real response, of course, is in the heart. It is not what I do, but why I do it. I do it because Jesus asked me to do it. This has to do with forgiveness, charity, prayer, and how I treat my neighbour.

Because of your Baptism and Confirmation, you have the Holy Spirit. The problem could be that the Holy Spirit may not have you! How conscious are you of the Spirit in your life? We are all familiar with the words and the acts that are inspired by a spirit of anger, rage, revenge, hatred, bigotry, or violence. As a Christian, my words and actions should be inspired and 'charged' with the power of the Holy Spirit. This is not automatic, but results from my constant whispered prayers, as I go about my daily tasks. It is not about saying prayers, as much as having a praying heart. Jesus said that the Spirit would remind us. It is important to remember to whisper the prayer first, before I say the word or do the act. In that way the Spirit will be able to work through me. A simple prayer would be "Lord, may your Spirit within me touch the hearts of those I meet today, either through the words I say, the prayers I pray, the life I live, or the very person that I am." Or perhaps, even more simple, as we are getting out of the bed, we pray: "Well Lord, what are we going to do today?" A simple way to pray, and it would help greatly to remind us of the extraordinary inheritance that is ours, because of what Jesus has done for us. (MB)

Prayer for the Sick

Father, your Son accepted his sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness.
Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brethren.
May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
