Today: A New Language

On Pentecost day the apostles spoke a new language.

What was this new language?

It was the language of peace rather than of war:

the language of cooperation rather than of competition;

the language of forgiveness rather than of vengeance;

the language of hope rather than of despair;

the language of tolerance rather than of bigotry;

the language of friendship rather than of hostility;

the language of unity rather than of division;

the language of love rather than of hate.

Through the gift of the Spirit,

people of different languages learned to profess one faith,

to the praise and glory of God.

That is the real miracle of Pentecost,

and it is a miracle which, thankfully, still happens. (MB)

Celebration Mass for the Feast of St Barnabas – Tuesday 11th June at 11.30am:

His Eminence, Cardinal Vincent Nichols will preside at this special Mass, and Bishop Patrick McKinney will concelebrate with him, along with many bishops from around the Dioceses of England and Wales. Space is very limited for the Mass within the Cathedral, therefore this Mass will be strictly by Ticket only.

History of the Diocese told through the medium of Flowers: Every deanery in our Diocese has been encouraged to send representatives to assist with a pageant of flowers, telling something of the history of the diocese and portraying in each deanery's specific area around the Cathedral, some important local highlights. You can now see this marvellous backdrop to the 175th liturgical celebrations this weekend. Please do take time this weekend to view the floral displays and admire all the work that has been involved in creating them for this wonderful occasion/

The Arts and Crafts Group have hung the community banner in place for the 175th Celebrations. It is opposite the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. Along side you will see on a stand a "memories" book, it is there for you to record any names of people you remember from the life of the Cathedral and also for any pictures or events you would like to put in. Please feel free. Please do also take time to look around the Cathedral at the other lovely banners which the Art and Craft Group have been working so hard making these last few months. We hope you all appreciate all the time, effort and attention to detail that has gone into the making of these wonderful displays.

There will be a Second Collection next weekend in respect of Day For Life.

Prayer for the Sick

Father, your Son accepted his sufferings
to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness.
Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brethren.
May all who suffer pain, illness or disease
realize that they have been chosen to be saints
and know that they are joined to Christ
in his suffering for the salvation of the world.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
